HOPES (Helping Others Prevent & Educate about Suicide) was established in 1998 by three survivors of suicide. We are a volunteer based non-profit with the mission of helping others through education and advocacy for suicide prevention. One of the ways we do this is through training others in QPR (Question Persuade Refer). As the need for QPR training grows we are always looking for individuals interested in taking the QPR Instructor Certification Program.

Why are you interested in becoming a certified QPR Instructor?

Have you ever been touched by suicide?

What experience, if any, have you had with public speaking in the past?

How comfortable are you with public speaking?

How many hours per month are you willing to commit to presenting QPR trainings?

Given where you currently live, what areas are you willing to travel to for presenting QPR trainings?

Do you have access to a laptop computer and/or projector?

Thank you for showing interest in becoming a certified QPR Instructor! We appreciate your commitment to suicide prevention. We will review your application for approval and contact you as soon as our schedule allows.

Sincerely,
The HOPES Board of Directors
