

Suicide Prevention Summit II: How to Save A Life

September 8th, 2008

American Family Insurance Training Center

Registration materials will be available for download on this website the week of July 28th

Registration Fees: $40 for Dane County residents; $55 for out of county guests.

AGENDA

8:15 Registration

8:45 Welcome and Year in Review – Cheryl Wittke, Executive Director, Safe Communities

9:00 Keynote – Launch of Burden of Suicide Report by Karen Timberlake, Secretary, Wisconsin, Department of Health and Family Services (Invited)

9:20 Survivor and Suicide Prevention Advocate: why taking action as a community to prevent suicide is important and effective

10:00 Break

10:15 – 11:45 Concurrent Sessions I

QPR for Everyone	Suicide Prevention and Mental Illness	Suicide and Racial/Ethnic Communities: Incidence and Prevention Strategies	Suicide Prevention from an Attempter's Perspective: What can we do to turn the tide?
------------------	---------------------------------------	--	--

12:00 Lunch

12:45 – 2:00 Concurrent Sessions II

Special Issues Facing Veterans	Youth Risk/Protective Factors and Suicide Prevention Strategies	Spirituality and Suicide Prevention	Suicide Prevention in the Workplace: Reducing Stigma and Supporting Recovery
--------------------------------	---	-------------------------------------	--

2:15 – 3:30 Concurrent Session III

QPR for Everyone	Older Adults and Suicide: Incidence and Prevention Strategies	Sexual Orientation, Harassment and Suicidal Thoughts: A Study of Dane County Youth	Lethal Means Restriction: What Public Health Research Tells Us
------------------	---	--	--